Manwell's Descriptive Circular and Price List for 1896.

THE MANWELL.

$\frac{3}{4}$  SIZE.

Warfield. (P) It is not immensely large, but its great beauty, firmness, earliness, good flavor, productiveness and vigor, combined with good size, it exceedingly popular. Ripens with Crescent, and is superceding that variety for a reliable market berry. Per dozen 25c; 50, 50c; 100, $1.00.

Beder Wood. This is generally conceded to be one of the best early ties for home use or a near market. It is a splendid grower, making number of strong runners. It has a perfect blossom and is immensely fine. Fruit of good size, round, light red of medium firmness and good. One of the best to plant with early blooming pistillate varieties. Per dozen, 50, 50c; 100, $1.00.

GRAPES.

Concord. The most popular market variety. 2 years old, $1.75 per dozen; 100, $8.00.

Warden. A splendid large grape of the Concord type, but earlier, larger in bunch and berry, and of decidedly better quality. Vine hardier than that of Concord and every way as healthy. A very popular sort, planted largely for market. Next to Concord in number used. 2 years old, $2.00 per dozen; 100, $10.00.

Moore's Diamond. Best white grape. 1 year old 35 cents each; $3.00 per dozen.

RASPBERRIES.

Cuthbert or Queen of the M. ket. A remarkably strong, hardy variety. Stands the northern winds and southern summers equal to any. Berry very large, measuring three inches around; conical, rich crimson. Very hardy, and so fine they can be shipped hundreds of miles by rail in good condition. Flavor is rich and luscious. The leading market variety for which it sells $2.00.

Older. Older is not an early berry compared with other sorts, but the bulk of its crop about with the Ohio. The berries are large, approach very nearly to Gregg in size. The quality is sweet and rich and bear an immense crop. It is a profitable market sort to follow an early variety, and it is valuable for sections subject to extremes of cold and drought, by reason of its hardy cane, tough foliage, and wonderful endurance in a drought. It is as highly desirable and equally satisfactory in the home garden for family use. Per dozen $1.00; 100 $3.50.

Gregg. The leading late black rasp, and a popular market sort. Per dozen $1.00; 100 $3.50.

BLACKBERRIES.

Snyder. Perfectly hardy. Standard sort. Per dozen $1.00; 100, $3.00.
